

Priority is given to women:

- Experiencing domestic violence
- Who identify as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander
- From a culturally/ linguistically diverse background
- Living with a disability
- Experiencing financial hardship
- Living in a rural, regional or remote area

Women's
Legal Service Qld

SERVICE JOURNEY

All services are free and provided by women

WLSQ can provide advice on:

- Domestic and family violence
- Family law
- Child protection
- Protection of counselling records in sexual assault matters
- Criminal law - advice for victims of crime and regarding simple or summary offences
- Immigration law for women on temporary visas

START

Contact WLSQ

- Helpline
- Referral
- In-person
- At court

1

Complete screening

If not eligible or services are not available.

Referral to another service or information provided.

Before your appointment

Provide requested documents.

2

3

Attend legal appointment

Usually within 1-14 days.

Potential additional support

- Assessment by specialist team
- Social worker appointment
- Financial counsellor appointment (FAPU)

Service close

Potential referral to other services

4

FINISH

Contact WLSQ again if further support is needed.

We have interpreter services if you want to use a language other than English, or if you are deaf.